

Preserving Yellowknife History

The story of Yellowknife is more than just that of the gold-era settlers. It is the rich tapestry of Indigenous culture, living for thousands of years on the north shore of Great Slave Lake and newcomers that grew Yellowknife from a mining outpost to a business supply centre, and then into government hub.

The Museum will be one of the core attractions in Yellowknife where the history of the gold miners and early settlers in the 1930's will be showcased. The Centre is only a few minutes drive outside of Yellowknife, near the old Giant Mine site on the shores of Great Slave Lake. It will be a lovely spot to take photos of the outdoor displays and enjoy a picnic.

Fun For The Family

Indoor museum and interpretation space will offer:

- Permanent historical exhibits
- Geology walks or tours
- Temporary or rotating exhibits
- School programs
- Lecture series on local history

Gift Shop

The gift shop will offer many souvenirs and local arts and crafts. These will range from postcards and pins to one of a kind artworks by talented northern artisans, which will support the local arts economy.

Café

The Café will be operated by a local entrepreneur and will offer a variety of snacks and beverages. In the summer, guests of the Centre will be able to enjoy the beautiful deck that overlooks the shores of Great Slave Lake.

We do it for you...

"Enrich tourist and local knowledge about our cultural and mining history, A great learning opportunity and unique location for a café and gift shop."

"Preserve, maintain and share our local history by telling ALL of our stories. Keep our history alive for residents, visitors and especially youth".

"A spectacular destination for tourists, locals, and students to learn about this important part of our past – what Yellowknife was built on."

"...a place to bring your visitors and children where the rich history of our City will come alive."
